PRICE LIST

OF

GLADIOLUS

1931

This list contains all the standard varieties, and many of the newer ones, most of which show great promise.

I guarantee my stock true to name, healthy, and free from disease.

I will ship, anytime after April 20th, parcel post, prepaid.

Bulbs should be unpacked at once, and kept in a cool, dry place, until ready to plant. I believe you will get the very best results from stock planted from May 1st to 20th.

One dozen bulbs at ten times the price of one; six at the dozen price.

Cut Flowers for sale, during the season, from about July 10th until frost, by the dozen, hundred or thousand.

Make a visit to my Garden this Summer, look around, and see what a wonderful Flower the Gladiolus is. It's not necessary to buy, and we will be glad to tell you all we know about them.
